

Australian Bushrangers

by
Dr Ken Lynn

This talk covers the period from the First Fleet to the end of the bushranger era with Ned Kelly. The peak period for Australian bushrangers lies between 1850 and 1880.

We meet such luminaries as the original Wild Colonial Boy (Jack Donahue), Frank Gardiner, Ben Hall, "Mad Dog" Morgan, Thunderbolt, Captain Midnite (correct spelling), Captain Moonlight and the imaginary Captain Starlight as well as a number of interesting but lesser-known men and one woman. Fully illustrated with the locations of their activity included.

The real Jack Doolan at age 15.
