

Joni Scott – Women of the Titanic

The 705 survivors of the sinking of the Titanic on April 15, 1912, mostly women and children, would never shed their grief. Long before PTSD was a well-known condition, these women surely were candidates for that long lasting mental trauma. They would forever live in the shadow of the Titanic.