

Meghan –Halverson Koalas in trouble

KAI concentrates its activities on retaining remaining bush land habitat, rehabilitating secondary habitat to improve the carrying capacity and replanting cleared areas with koala food trees and other native trees, shrubs and grasses. KAI is committed to supporting its koala orphan carers by facilitating the creation of koala food tree plantations and subsidising costs related to raising koala joeys.